

Beckii Gothard

I started KleeneZe around my part-time job as a phlebotomist in a doctors surgery, to earn some extra cash and to enable me and my partner Tony to start saving for a mortgage.

In my first few weeks I started to establish my customer base in my local area, qualifying me for 250 free catalogues and also earning £212.66, the cheque you can see below.

I am excited about my future in KleeneZe and am currently working towards building a team to give me long term stability and income without having to work the long hours I would need to in a job.
