My name is Thomas Curtis. I live in Forest Hill, London. I'm a full-time bus driver. I was introduced to Kleeneze by my cousin Steven Sibula. At first I was very negative to it because I felt I was helping other people make money and I'll be the one struggling but I changed that negative mind set and thought " This will be a fantastic opportunity to know my community even if it doesn't work I would love the challenge to finally get out there and give something positive to the youth around and on the other hand I would cycle to keep my belly down and stay fit. .lol

My first opportunity meeting was an eye opener, it fired me up when I saw people being rewarded for their efforts. In our normal jobs we hardly do. Robs training as well helped me a lot I could picture myself doing things while he was speaking

For me I'm grateful to be part of an awesome team, my two uplines PAUL AND HELEN are always positive they like my own kleeneze Angels. It feels good giving a hard working creative person an opportunity to make something big for themselves and help others follow suit. Its giving hope to the good and a chance to help while making money..And for me I love the feeling of delivering something to a customer and the satisfied smile they give you thank you. Its jus AWESOME!!!!
