GREAT SCOTT!

Stories of everyday people achieving extraordinary success are the norm within this business. However, one is even more exceptional than most and that's the story of Gavin Scott. This week, the ex-shipyard worker turned multi-million pound businessman added another chapter to his incredible life story by leaping up the Sales Plan a further four levels to Silver Premier Executive Distributor!

3 WEEKS UNTIL CHRISTMAS!

Gavin left school with just a few basic qualifications and with no definitive career plan, following in his father's footsteps into the Tyneside shipyards. Nine years later, he was still there – however, he yearned for something better. Something better eventually came along – in the form of a Kleeneze information pack.

That pack intrigued Gavin enough to start a part-time business with Kleeneze in September 1992. He went on to create a Kleeneze business with a multi-million pound turnover. Gavin and his partner Bonnie Arapes have also qualified for conferences to Australia, Arizona, Malta, Monte Carlo, Bangkok, Bali and Florida Keys – to name but a few, along the way.

Now, reflecting the amazing growth the business has had since the recession hit, this last month has seen Gavin and Bonnie fly a whopping four levels up the Sales Plan. His Period 12 cheque was in excess of £43,000 – that's for only four weeks work!!
