

GRAHAM TAYLOR & SIMON SELFRIDGE
LIVERPOOL

With Rob Forster receiving our 13% award

We started Kleeneze in January 2009 with myself working around 260 hours per month in the security industry and my partner working around 130 hours per month in Tesco so we understand how hard it can be to try to fit things in around working life but we both can honestly say we enjoy working our kleeneze business.

We both started with thinking an extra income would be good for us both financially but we just didn't expect to be earning the amounts below as we have been and

YOU COULD BE EARNING THIS TOO!

Quite simply, just for working part time hours per week we have achieved the amounts below and the great thing about this business is you can do it part time or full time and you can fit it in around whatever lifestyle you may have, whats more as we build our team we can have that security that we have both been looking for in other companies.

WE BOTH CAN HONESTLY SAY IT WORKS
