

John & Wendy English (East Yorkshire)

I served 17 years in the Royal Navy; Wendy worked in Air Traffic Control (Wendy left that profession so we could start a family). I left the Navy in 1994 to pursue a career in Archaeology (A life long ambition). This began by reading the subject at York University and achieving a degree at honours level. Although I found the work fascinating the majority of archaeological employment was based on short-term contracts. This was not ideal when I had a family and a mortgage to support. (A situation that many contracted workers can probably relate to). I had to find some way of earning money whilst I was 'out of contract'.

Kleeneze provided the opportunity to earn that extra money. From delivering catalogues to earn an immediate income, we very quickly realized the potential of Kleeneze. Since then our business has gone from strength to strength, but what I find exciting is that our Kleeneze business is still in its infancy, its potential is enormous!

We no longer have to rely on someone else giving me a contract; we only have to rely on ourselves for an income. We are now earning more than our combined incomes ever did; and our Kleeneze income will keep growing as long as we work at it.

The Kleeneze opportunity has completely changed our outlook on life, by working consistently we know we can achieve all our goals both monetary and personally. For example Kleeneze has taken us on an all expenses paid cruise to the Caribbean on one of the most prestigious liners in the world (pure luxury!) And 5 star conferences to Australia (twice), South Africa and Greece all expenses paid. These were places we had dreamed of, but would probably never have achieved them without joining Kleeneze!

We have also been awarded a brand new MINI COOPER, just for hitting certain goals in our Kleeneze business.

We have achieved our freedom, due to never having to rely on other people for employment, which means never being out of work again

The same opportunity is available for everyone who wants it!

Typical Kleeneze income £6,500+ (Every 4 weeks) or £1,600 + per week (take home)
